A Society of the Hall in the Grove is being formed at Blue Earth, with the pleasant result that a number of readers who have never claimed diplomas but have done the full four years work are to be enrolled as graduates. One of these good Chautauquans began her work in 1885. We congratulate the society upon its bright prospects. The undergraduate circle of the same town has a large membership and will be a steady source of strength to the S. H. G. The Glencoe Chautauquans have reorganized, and new circles have been formed at Ransom and Pipestone. Reference has been made in the Round Table to the decennial exercises of the Pierian Circle of Stillwater. The following selections are taken from Mr. J. H. Sullivans paper on The Story of the Pierian Circle, read on that occasion. After referring to the initial...
