A year after she faced her issues head-on, Nic's life couldn't be better. She can't remember a time when she was this happy. Settling in with her boyfriend, college acceptance letters, and her graduation from high school on the horizon, everything should be perfect. And it almost is. Colin Westwick's demons are back to haunt him. After receiving startling news, everything the young couple thought they knew about love, family, hope, and trust has come to a staggering halt before falling apart piece by piece. With the loss of one of Colin's loved ones comes the reappearance of one from his past, leaving Nickayla to fight twice as hard for the both of them. He kept his promise to save her, but can she keep the one she made to save him back?.
