Estratto: .a greeting to the absent one. Petra does not comprehend what has happened until the bride softly enters and sees his corpse! It now seems as if the whole tempest of grief were about to launch forth in concentrated power; but a glance dispels it. From the bosom of her dead lover the bride looks up to heaven and asks that she, too, may die. At her glance the skies throw wide their gates! Radiant beams stream down--the nuptial hall is above; let the bride enter! Ah, yes, she sees the heavens already open; her eyes shine with a peace like that upon the mountain-tops. Their eyelids now close; a Higher Power has ended the contest, and her fidelity has won a celestial crown. She is with her lover in heaven. Petra kept her seat some time...
