Joel 2:31 [The facts in this story are based upon the scriptures above and the fiction is described in the story below] This is a fiction story with a non-fiction subject about a young man named Daniel Morgan who at the age of nine is fascinated by a mysterious looking Red Moon when he and his father visit his Grandpa Morgan near Springfield, Missouri in the month of October. Later Daniel puts his fascination with Red Moons on hold for a number of years until his curiosity is once again piqued and he enrolls at the University of Missouri to study Astronomy. There he meets the very attractive and very smart auburn haired Maureen McIntyre. They become quick friends and Daniel soon discovers he has found not only his Red Moon soul mate but he has found his sweetheart as well. Daniel and Maureen team up to solve the mystery of the Red Moons of...
