Excerpt: . De Cornhelle (Sheriff of Kent). Stay, stay, my lord archbishop, stay, I say: I have a strict command to lay on thee In thy King s name--the King this side the water. Becket. And what is that? but tell me first thy name, And show me thy authority. Gervase De Cornhelle. I will. Here is a letter from the King to thee. My lord archbishop, dost thou own this Prince To be thy King? Wilt thou obey him then, Swear unto him allegiance? Answer that! I am the Sheriff of this county Kent, To which thou comest trampling thy brethren Underfoot; and that because they did obey Their King and thine. Them thou hast dared, I say, To excommunicate, and that without The knowledge of the King--a traitor s act. The bishops he commands thee to absolve. Remove from all these good and loyal...
