Not illustrated. 1857 Excerpt: . . . Superintendent of the 3rd Division, there is a paragraph of the same purport as that addressed to Dr. Pine, which is followed by this observation: -- I hope you insist on the walls of the hospital marquees being lowered whenever the weather will admit of it, and that you urge on the attention of Medical Officers the necessity of moving and cleaning under every patient daily, or every second day at the outside, to prevent accumulation of filth of every kind, which is so apt to take place if this be not attended to. It would be a good thing for you to recommend through the divisional authorities the mens tents to be struck occasionally during moderate weather, that the ground where they stand and the interior of the tents themselves may be purified by free exposure to the air. As low fever, you say, is on the increase, I think it would be well to have all the filth near the Hospital establishments and near the mens tents collected daily, and either burnt or buried. Considering that febrile disease was generated by want of personal cleanliness, and that other complaints, such as itch, scurvy, and ulcers remained undetected for want of the usual weekly inspection of the men by their own Medical Officers, I issued a circular memorandum on the subject, dated 17th February, 1855, in which there is the following passage: -- He therefore requests superintending Medical Officers will see that this...
