It is one of the best books. Indeed, it really is a play, nevertheless an amazing and interesting literature. It is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding, once you begin to read the book.

John Paris Hudson: A Minister of the Gospel in the Presbyterian Church for Sixty Years John Paris Hudson was of English and Huguenot ancestry, and through his father and mother, related to many old and well-known families in Virginia and West Virginia. He was a descendant of an ancient English family, the family of Henry Hudson the navigator, founded according to tradition, by a follower of William, after the Norman Conquest, and distinguished through succeeding reigns as a race of scholars and brave gentlemen. In the sixth year of the reign of King George I, April, 1720, George Hudson, the younger son of a Yorkshire gentleman, from whom Rev. Mr. Hudson was in the fifth generation in line of descent, came to Philadelphia, and purchased from the Proprietaries several hundred acres of land in Caernarvon township, Lancaster, then Chester county, in the Province of Pennsylvania. Caernarvon was a beautiful and fertile section of Eastern Lancaster county, bounded on the north by the Welsh Mountains, and on the south by the Forest Hills, through which flow the head waters of the Conestoga. It was the third settlement in point of time within the limits of Lancaster county, the most aristocratic and exclusive settlement in the county, and for seventy years maintained that character. Some of the houses of the early colonists still standing with solid stone walls, show the perfection of finished workmanship, in elaborate carved wainscoting and oaken paneling.
