Econo Publishing Company, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 224 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. Sell your book the easy way --- sell a proposal You can get paid to write a book. It s easily possible to make a fast $10,000, or even a six figure amount. You could even make seven figures --- over a million dollars for twenty pages of text. It sounds incredible, but a fast seven figures is certainly possible if you have a HOT, hot idea or have had an experience that hundreds of thousands of people want to read about. In his 2001 book about writing non-fiction, Why Didn t I Write That?, author Marc McCutcheon says that it s not hard to make a good income: you can learn the trade and begin making a respectable income much faster than most people think possible. The good part is that you don t need to write your book before you get some money. You write a proposal, and a publisher will give you an advance, which you can live on while you write the book. Writing a proposal is the smart way to write a book. It s the way professional writers sell non-fiction. Selling a book on a proposal is much easier than selling a book that you ve already written. A book proposal is a complete description of your book. It contains the title, an explanation of what the book s about, an outline of chapters, a market and competition survey, and a sample chapter. A book proposal functions in the same way as any business proposal does: you re making an offer to someone you hope to do business with. It will be treated by publishers in the same way that any business treats a...
