RareBooksClub. Paperback. Book Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. Paperback. 34 pages. Original publisher: Baltimore, Md. : Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services, 2004. OCLC Number: (OCoLC)61494844 Subject: Home care services -- United States -- Handbooks, manuals, etc. Excerpt: . . . 15 Section 2: Choosing a Home Health Agency Finding a Medicare-certified home health agency If your doctor decides you need home health care, you may choose an agency from the participating Medicare-certified home health agencies that serve your area. Home health agencies are certified to make sure they meet certain Federal health and safety requirements. Your choice should be honored by your doctor, hospital discharge planner, or other referring agency. You have a say in which agency you use, but your choices may be limited by agency availability, or by your insurance coverage. (Medicare Advantage Plans or other Medicare health plans may require that you get home health services from agencies they contract with.) Comparing home health agencies Use Medicares Home Health Compare web tool by visiting www.medicare.gov/HHCompare to compare home health agencies in your area. You can compare home health agencies by the types of services they offer and the quality of care they provide. Home Health Compare provides the following information about home health agencies: Name, address, and telephone number Services offered (such as nursing care, physical therapy, occupational therapy, speech-language pathology services, medical social services, and home health aide services) Initial date of Medicare certification Type of ownership (For Profit, Government, Non-Profit) Words in red Information about the quality of care provided (quality are defined on measures) pages 29 - 30. This item ships from La Vergne,TN. Paperback.
