Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Music and book publisher Tabitha Music Limited have re-published the first novel by England based author, musician and record producer Graham Sclater. Born in Exeter in 1947 Graham spent many years living and playing Hammond organ in a number of groups in Germany and Scandinavia during the sixties. He returned to England in the early seventies where he worked as a session musician in many of the top London studios. An accomplished songwriter and musician, Graham has been featured in a number of arts and musical programmes and has performed and recorded with many artists including Jimi Hendrix, Fats Domino, Ritchie Blackmore, James Taylor, Elton John, Christine Perfect, Tony Ashton and numerous name musicians. He recently had two of his original screenplays, 'More than a woman?' and 'Hatred is the key?' optioned by an American production company. Graham can be heard regularly on terrestrial and web based radio stations around the world reviewing his book of the month and presenting the A-Z of writing. All in all, the book exudes the optimism and damn the torpedoes attitude...
