Nathan and the Really Big Bully/Nathan y El Gran Abusador (Hardback)

By Gerry Renert

Raven Tree Press, United States, 2012. Hardback. Book Condition: New. Carrie Anne Bradshaw (illustrator). Bilingual. 284 x 226 mm. Language: English, Spanish. Brand New Book. NATHAN AND THE REALLY BIG BULLY tells the story of a hyena who enjoys splashing all the smaller animals in the lagoon. The hyena especially enjoys picking on a penguin, in a classic example of bullying. The penguin turns to Nathan for advice and bounces several options off him. First, the penguin envisions himself not swimming when the hyena is in the lagoon, but doesn't like that idea. Next, the penguin imagines trying to be a better friend to the hyena, but also doesn't like that. He even envisions hitting the hyena and actually likes that, but Nathan advises the penguin that the worst thing he can do is to strike back saying, two wrongs never make a right. The next day, an elephant wanders into the lagoon, fills up his trunk with water and playfully sprays a huge stream at Nathan. Nathan's first reaction is to get angry, but with the penguin watching, Nathan decides to follow his own advice and exercise restraint. Later that day, Nathan is giving swimming lessons...
